Below is a list of recruitment consultants who advertise vacancies in the Fashion, Textiles and Retail sectors. After this there are also a handful of job boards in these areas. Inclusion on this list does not mean they are necessarily recommended by the Employability and Careers Service, nor does it mean that they currently have appropriate vacancies. However, contacting these and other agencies might help in your job search. To find out more about Recruitment Consultants please see another of our guides “Using Recruitment Consultants”

Some consultants will tend to have opportunities geared more towards candidates with experience. It still might be useful to look at these vacancies as they can give a feel for career progression. When searching these opportunities don't just restrict yourself to jobs with “Graduate” in the title. First level positions suitable for graduates may have other titles e.g. “Junior Buyer” etc.

This is not a definitive list, and you can search recruitment consultants by location and type of work e.g. “Manchester and Retail” at www.rec.uk.com Local Agencies are listed first, and a number may have offices in more than one location.
