Graduate Recruiters in the Hospitality Sector.

Many employers in the hospitality sector target MMU and the hospitality courses in particular, for their graduate recruitment needs. Below is a list of such employers who have recruited at MMU in the last couple of years. It is not the definitive list of recruiters, there are many more out there, nor does it guarantee that they currently have vacancies. Some will have graduate training programmes (many of which will have closing dates) whilst others will recruit graduates to specific vacancies rather than have a generic graduate programme. It does though act as a starting point for students and graduates who are seeking careers in the hospitality sector.

The list includes Hotels, Restaurants, Contract Caterers, Conference Venues and the Armed Forces. The employers are listed alphabetically. To keep information to a minimum it only includes the name of the employer and their web site. From the link you will be able to locate the employers' careers and vacancy information.
