

HISTORY RESEARCH CENTRE SEMINAR SERIES, 2017-18

RAH! Research in Arts and Humanities at Manchester Met

Tea, coffee and biscuits are served from 4pm before every seminar, and please join us in a local pub afterwards to continue the discussion.
Each public lecture is followed by a wine reception.

Wednesday 27 September

4.15pm Steinstücken: Little Island of Freedom. A micro-level view of the Cold War
Mark Fenemore (Man Met) GM 231

Wednesday 11 October

5.30pm Re-inventing the Citizen in (East-)Central Europe: 1918 and the Consequences
Public Lecture Robert Gerwarth (University College Dublin) GM LT3

Wednesday 25 October

4.15pm Proving God in early modern Europe
Lloyd Strickland (Man Met) GM 231

Wednesday 8 November

4.15pm Marie Orliac's London: French female migrants and trans-Channel cultural relations in early twentieth century Britain
Charlotte Faucher (University of Manchester) GM 231

Wednesday 22 November

5.30pm 'The Gentle Weapon': Social Ostracism, Gender and Massive Resistance in Montgomery Alabama
Public Lecture Helen Laville (Man Met) GM LT3
Pro-Vice Chancellor for Education

Wednesday 6 December

4.15pm Jacob Harris: Jewish Triple Murderer, 1734: A Case of the English Antisemitic Dog that did not bark for a hundred years?

Sam Johnson Memorial Seminar Tony Kushner (University of Southampton) GM LT3
Co-hosted with the Centre for Jewish Studies

Wednesday 17 January

4.15pm The Manchester Centre for Youth Studies: Thinking Historically about Childhood

Melanie Tebbutt and April Pudsey (Man Met) GM231

Wednesday 31 January

4.15pm Neutrality explained. Early Nazi propaganda campaigns in Spain during World War II

Mercedes Peñalba-Sotorrío (Man Met) GM 231

Wednesday 21 February

5.30pm A Shropshire Lad in Ancient Rome: A. E. Housman and ancient 'homosexuality'

Public Lecture Jennifer Ingleheart (University of Durham) GM LT3
Co-hosted with the Manchester Classical Association

Wednesday 7 March

4.15pm Crusading, chivalry and masculinity in fifteenth and early sixteenth century England

Katherine Lewis (University of Huddersfield) GM 231

Wednesday 21 March

4.15pm A Better Future for the World: Ethiopia, Somalia and the Establishment of the United Nations

Donna Jackson (University of Chester) GM 231

For further information, please contact Andy Crome at a.crome@mmu.ac.uk and Craig Griffiths at c.griffiths@mmu.ac.uk