

Vice-Chancellor's International Scholarship 2020/2021

Terms and conditions

Applicant and course eligibility criteria

- In order to apply, applicants must hold an unconditional or a conditional offer for an eligible course at Manchester Metropolitan University, starting in January 2021.
- If a student holds a conditional offer and applies for the Vice-Chancellor's International Scholarship, the scholarship can only be awarded once the offer conditions have been met.
- Only courses charging standard overseas fees of a minimum £15,000 and being taught on the Manchester Campus, are eligible.
- Courses excluded from this offer: BA (Hons) Architecture, Master of Architecture and MA Architecture and Urbanism.
- Applicants must be self-funding and classified as overseas students for tuition fee purposes.
- Scholarships are only available for new undergraduate and postgraduate taught Manchester Metropolitan University students, former students and current students moving from one course to another are not eligible.
- Applicants will have successfully met any conditions set for entry onto the programme.

Other conditions

- Successful applicants are required to join the International Student Representative Scheme.
- The Scholars are expected to contribute to the projects of Manchester Met's alumni community.
- The deadline for applications is 20th November 2020.
- Applications selected to receive a firm scholarship offer must confirm that they accept the award within 7 days.
- Scholarship awards are made by the VC Scholarship Panel, their all decision is final and cannot be appealed.
- Applicants nominated for the Scholarship may be asked to submit their full academic transcripts, and other supporting documents, before the Scholarship offer is confirmed.
- The scholarship will be awarded as a reduction in fees for overseas students commencing their studies in Academic Year 2020/21 and is available for one year only.
- The scholarship is only available in the year of study when the when the full overseas fee is charged.

- Your scholarship should be displayed during your online enrolment, however if the University's Finance Office are aware when processing your invoice (or afterwards) that you are not a self-paying student the scholarship will be removed and standard overseas fees will apply.
- No other form of Manchester Metropolitan University discount or scholarship may be used in conjunction with the Vice-Chancellor's International Scholarships. Please refer to the Regulations for the Payment of University Fees for further information on how discounts/scholarships are applied by clicking here. However, if a student is in receipt of more than one form of fee reduction (including discounts, awards or scholarship) they will only receive one fee reduction and will be awarded the greater amount.
- Students will not be eligible for the full scholarship if they do not complete the full course which results in a fee reduction. If they withdraw, suspend or exit with a lesser award the Regulations for the Payment of University Fees state discount/scholarships will be pro-rated if the withdrawal, suspension or exit results in a reduced tuition fee. In these cases the value of any scholarship will be pro-rated in proportion to any reduced tuition fees. Should a student transfer courses or change their study mode they might be required to repay the scholarship in full.
- If a student suspends from the course which results in a fee reduction, the value of any award will be pro-rated in proportion to the tuition fees charged. The remaining scholarship will be applied in the following academic year providing students return to their eligible course and the scholarships are still available.
- If a student fails to pay fees as agreed, any amount awarded may be reversed and they might need to pay the full fee amount.
- Should a student leave their course due to unavoidable circumstances, they will need to provide evidence by email to internationalscholarships@mmu.ac.uk. This evidence will then be considered by the University. Manchester Met may, at its discretion, pro-rata eligibility for the Scholarship depending on the student's date of suspension/withdrawal.
- The scholarship will not be carried over if a student defers entry.
- Please note that all students are required to comply with, and are bound by, the University's Student Regulations and Procedures, which can be viewed at www.mmu.ac.uk/policy. If a student is removed from the course for failing to comply with the Student Regulations and Procedures, they will be required to pay the scholarship back in full.
- Manchester Metropolitan University are the Data Controller for the information submitted in the online Vice-Chancellor's International Scholarship Application form. By submitting this form, you give consent to Manchester Met to process your personal data to determine your application.
- Manchester Met will process applicant personal data in accordance with our Data Protection Policy, which provides further information about privacy rights and who to contact about the processing of personal data. Applications forms will be retained for 12 months, successful applicant information will be retained on the student record in line with the University's Records Retention Schedule.
- This scholarship cannot be combined with any other University bursary or awards.
