

BSA Youth Study Group Research Development Workshop for Research Students and Early Career Researchers

10.00 – 16.00, Thursday 28 April 2016

Geoffrey Manton Building, Manchester Metropolitan University

In collaboration with the Manchester Centre for Youth Studies,
MMU

Programme

- 10.00 Registration and coffee
- 10.25 Welcome
- 10.30 Paper Session 1
- Emily Rainsford, Newcastle University: “The role of education and training in reducing youth unemployment in Europe”
 - Alice Bloch, University of Oxford: “Translating ‘Youth Policy’ in Bosnia-Herzegovina”
- 11.30 Publishing advice: Dr Katherine Runswick-Cole, Manchester Metropolitan University
- 12.15 Lunch
- 13.00 Paper Session 2
- Charlene Crossley, Manchester Metropolitan University: “Here. Me. Now.: The goals and aspirations of young people living in communities labelled as marginalised or gang affected”
 - Graham Gaunt, Newcastle University: “Working in Industry: Exploring Vocational Apprenticeships in Teesside”
 - Anna Uboldi, University of Milano Bicocca: “Sociogenesis of the creative vocation: the study of art between dispositions and aspirations.
- 14.30 Break
- 14.45 Paper Session 3
- Kelly Teeboon, Liverpool John Moores University: “Feminism, Tumblr and Digital Resistance Culture”
 - Eveleigh Buck-Matthews, Coventry University: “Festivals: Spaces of Exception – A Music Festival Methodology”
- 15.45 Final discussion
- 16.00 Close