

South Asian Research Network for Childhood and Youth Studies (SARNCYS)

<https://www2.mmu.ac.uk/mcys/south-asian-network/>

Webinar*

Coproduction of child well-being policies in South Asia

Date: 24/02/2021

Time: 1:00m London (7pm Bangladesh, 6:30pm India, 6:30pm Sri Lanka, 6:45pm Nepal);

Duration: 60 minutes;

Session Chair: Professor Hannah Smithson, Director, MCYS, Dept. of Sociology, Manchester Metropolitan University

Programme (London local time)

- 1:00pm Welcome and opening remarks
Professor Jennifer Watling, Pro-Vice-Chancellor International, Manchester Metropolitan University
- 1:05pm Position of South Asian Research Network in Manchester Centre for Youth Studies and wider Faculty of Arts and Humanities
Professor Hannah Smithson, Director, MCYS, Dept. of Sociology, Manchester Metropolitan University
- 1:10pm Overview of South Asian Research Network and aims of this webinar
Dr Haridhan Goswami, Coordinator, SARNCYS, Dept. of Sociology, Manchester Metropolitan University
- 1:20-1:45pm Coproduction of child well-being policies in South Asia: 4 case studies
1. Coproduction with Nepalese children: Preliminary findings
Dr Arbinda Lal Bhomi, Vice-President, Foundation for Educational Change, Kathmandu, Nepal.
 2. Coproduction with Sri Lankan children: Preliminary findings
Dr Subhashinie Wijesundera, Senior Lecturer, Department of Education, University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka
 3. Coproduction with Bangladeshi children: Preliminary findings
Professor Dr Gour Gobinda Goswami, Dept. of Economics, Director, Student Affairs, North South University, Bangladesh
 4. Coproduction with Indian children: Preliminary findings
Dr Saswati Das, Associate Scientist-C, Economic Research Unit, Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata, India
- 1:45pm Future plan and activities of the network
Dr Haridhan Goswami, Coordinator, SARNCYS
- 1:50pm Questions and Answers
- 2:00pm The end

* Joining instruction: Please use the MS Team link provided in the e-mail invitation.