MANCHESTER METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

Manchester Metropolitan University (the University) processes the personal data of living individuals such as its staff, students, contractors, research subjects and customers. This processing is regulated by the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The UK’s regulator for the DPA and GDPR is the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO).

The University is registered as a Data Controller with the ICO and is responsible for compliance with the GDPR and DPA.

1.1 Key Definitions

This DPA and GDPR contain a number of key definitions which are referenced in this policy such as ‘Personal Data’, ‘Processing’ and ‘Data Controller’. Those definitions are set out in Annex A.

1.2 Purpose and Objectives of Policy

This policy sets out the University’s commitment to comply with the Data Protection Act 2018 (‘DPA’), and the General Data Protection Regulation (‘the GDPR’).

1.3 Scope and Status of the Policy

This policy applies to all University staff, students and others who use or process any Personal Data. This policy applies regardless of where Personal Data is held and or the equipment used if the Processing is for the University’s purposes. Further, the policy applies to all Personal Data (including Sensitive Personal Data) held in any form whether manual paper records or electronic records.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

2.1 Board of Governors

The Board of Governors is responsible for approval of the Policy.

University Executive Group

The University Executive Group is responsible for strategic level implementation of the policy, oversight of compliance with the policy and reporting identified risks to the Board.

1 You can view our registration with the ICO by typing Manchester Metropolitan University into the search function accessible via the following link: https://ico.org.uk/about-the-ico/what-we-do/register-of-data-controllers/
Information Asset Owners

The University will appoint Information Asset Owners (IAOs) with local responsibility for data protection compliance for Personal Data processed in their area.

Information Asset Managers

The University will appoint Information Asset Managers who will hold local responsibility for data protection compliance processed within their teams. A list of the IAOs and IAMs can be accessed here.

Data Protection Officer

The University’s Data Protection Officer (DPO) is primarily responsible for advising on and assessing the University’s compliance with the DPA and GDPR and making recommendations to improve practice in this area. Further, the DPO acts as the University’s primary point of contact for DPA and GDPR matters.

Legal Services

Legal Services are responsible for providing advice, support and guidance in relation to day-to-day data protection matters.

All staff

All staff, including permanent staff, fixed term contractors and temporary workers must comply with this Policy, the DPA and the GDPR whenever Processing Personal Data held by the University or on behalf of the University.

All Students

All students are responsible for compliance with the rules and policies made by the University. Students must comply with this policy where collecting and Processing Personal Data as part of their course, studies or research.

Contractors and Consultants

Third parties such as consultants, contractors or agents, undertaking work on behalf of the University involving Personal Data, must adhere to the University’s Data Protection Policy and comply with the DPA and the GDPR. Provision will be made in contracts with external providers to ensure compliance with this Policy, the DPA and GDPR.

3. Compliance with the DPA and GDPR

3.1 Awareness & Capability

The University will implement, and monitor annual completion of, mandatory Data Protection training for all staff. The content of that training will be reviewed annually.
3.2 Privacy By Design

The University will implement a Privacy By Design Approach to Processing Personal Data through integrating Privacy Impact Assessments into business processes and projects.

3.3 Lawful, Fair & Transparent Processing

The University will provide appropriate information to individuals when collecting their Personal Data by means of privacy notices. The University will also ensure at least one lawful basis is available before Processing Personal Data.

3.4 Purpose Limitation

The University will clearly set out purposes for Processing Personal Data. The University will only process Personal Data for purposes notified to individuals and where the new purpose is compatible with an existing purpose.

3.5 Data Minimisation

The University will only collect as much information as is necessary to meet the purposes that have been identified. Personal Data must be adequate, relevant and not excessive.

3.6 Accuracy

The University will ensure that Personal Data processed is accurate and where necessary kept up to date.

3.7 Security

The University will protect the security of Personal Data by maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the University's Information Security Policy and Information Classification Scheme.

3.8 Record Keeping & Retention

The University will maintain a Records Retention and Disposal Schedule setting the periods for which records containing Personal Data are to be retained.

3.9 External Contractors and International Transfers

The University will enter into legally binding written contracts with external bodies where those bodies are engaged to process Personal Data on our behalf. The University will implement adequacy arrangements where transferring any Personal Data outside of the European Union.
3.10 Other Third Party Access

The University will only disclose Personal Data to third parties such as the police, central government and other education institutions where there is a lawful basis for doing so and appropriate arrangements are in place with those parties.

3.11 Internal Sharing

The University will seek to ensure that Personal Data is only shared across different teams, divisions or faculties where those areas have a business need for accessing that data.

4. Data Subjects Rights

The University will comply with requests from an individual to exercise their rights under the DPA, and the GDPR. All individuals have the right to be informed what information the University holds about them and to request copies of that information. This is known as a Subject Access Request. Any individual wishing to submit a Subject Access Request should follow the instructions accessible here.

Under the DPA and GDPR, individuals also have the following rights in relation to their Personal Data:

- The right to request their Personal Data is rectified if inaccurate
- The right to request erasure of their Personal Data
- The right to request that the Processing of their Personal Data is restricted
- The right of portability in relation to their Personal Data
- The right to object to the Processing of their Personal Data
- The right to object to Processing which involves automated decision making or profiling.

Individuals who wish to exercise the above rights should contact the University’s Data Protection Officer via Legal Services: legal@mmu.ac.uk. It is recommended that Individuals submit their request in writing and specify exactly what Personal Data and/or Processing they are referring to and which right they wish to exercise. If you are seeking access to your Personal Data (i.e. making a ‘Subject Access Request’) then you may find it helpful to review our guidance available on our Data Protection Website.

Any staff member who receives a request from an individual to exercise the above rights under the DPA and GDPR must forward it to Legal Services immediately: legal@mmu.ac.uk. All staff are responsible for cooperating with Legal Services to ensure that the University can comply with an individual’s request under the DPA and GDPR within the statutory timescales.

5. Own Personal Data

All staff and students are responsible for checking that information they provide to the University in connection with their employment or studies is accurate and up to date. Any changes to Personal Data provided (e.g. change of address) must be promptly notified, in writing, to the University (via a Student Hub for students). The University cannot be held responsible for errors unless the member of staff or student has properly informed the University about them.

6. Personal Data Breaches

The University will respond promptly to any identified Personal Data Breaches and thoroughly investigate those incidents to ascertain whether:
- The breach should or must be reported to the ICO
- Data subjects should or must be made aware of the breach; and
- It is necessary to amend processes or introduce new measures to mitigate against any further breaches.

Any staff member who knows or suspects that an actual or potential Personal Data Breach has occurred must immediately notify Legal Services: legal@mmu.ac.uk. All staff are responsible for fully engaging and cooperating with Legal Services in relation to their investigation of a Personal Data Breach.

7. Compliance

Compliance with this Policy, the DPA and the GDPR is the responsibility of all members of staff and students. Employees must comply with the rules and procedures made by the University. It is a condition of being a student that all University rules and policies are fully complied with.

Any breach of the policy by a member of staff may result in disciplinary action or access to the University's facilities being withdrawn. Serious or deliberate breaches of the DPA can result in a criminal prosecution.

Any breach of the GDPR by the University may result in a substantial fine or actions imposed upon the University by the ICO.

8. FURTHER INFORMATION

Questions about the interpretation or operation of this policy should be taken up in the first instance with the Data Protection Officer in Legal Services: legal@mmu.ac.uk. Any individual who considers that the Policy has not been followed in respect of Personal Data about themselves should also raise the matter with the University's Data Protection Officer.

Further information about the DPA and the GDPR can be found on the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO website). Further guidance for staff can be found on the University's Data Protection website. Please see the policy section of the MMU website for related policies.
