

HELP WITH YOUR STUDIES

Where do I start?

Are you having difficulty keeping up with the demands of your course? Or maybe you are not happy with your level of writing or research. We have resources to help you.

Your Student Support Officer is here to help you find the resources you need to succeed. If you are not sure who this person is for your course, the Student Hubs can book an appointment for you, or you can find them online here: www.mmu.ac.uk/sas/studentservices/student-support-officers.php

Student Support Officers provide workshops and one to one meetings on a range of skill areas including time management, referencing, essay/report/project writing, presentations, research and reflection, and critical analysis. View a schedule of current workshops and register at www.mmu.ac.uk/LD/skillsdevelopment.

HELP WITH YOUR STUDIES

Manchester Metropolitan offers specific programmes to ensure you get the most out of your time at Uni.

The Writing Project

This free ten-week course is designed to improve your style, punctuation and grammar as well as teaching you to organise your thoughts. Writing well can improve your assessment grades by helping you present your thoughts clearly and will help impress future employers. ## Disability Service

If you have (or think you may have) dyslexia or another physical or mental condition that impairs your ability to study, our Disability Service Advisors can provide advice and support including Specialist Study Skills Workshops. You may also be able to obtain a Personal Learning Plan to support your learning and assessment. www.mmu.ac.uk/disabilityservice

Counselling, Health & Wellbeing

This service is staffed by a professionally qualified team experienced in helping students handle emotional and psychological issues. www.mmu.ac.uk/counselling
